

WELCOME TO

SYDNEY

Australia's vibrant city

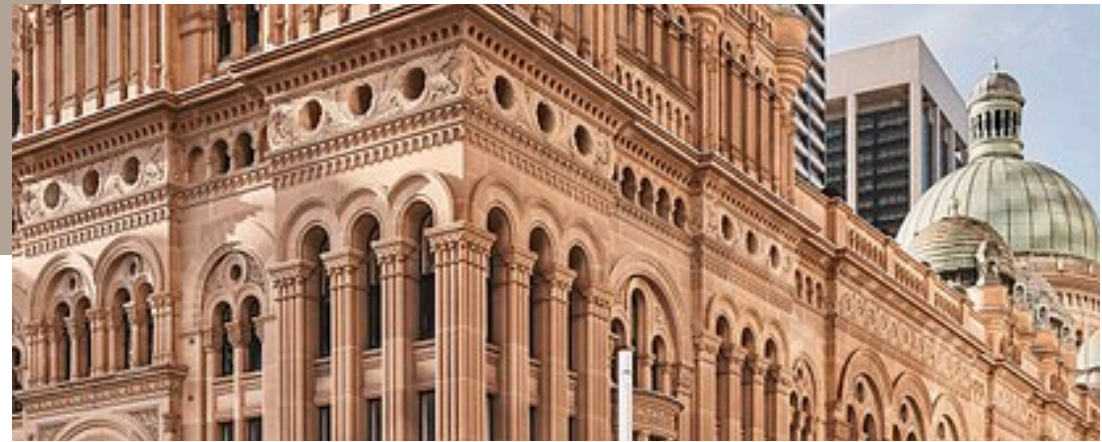

- Belongs to New South Wales state
- Offers an unique lifestyle, rich culture, exceptional amenities
- Let's explore its beauty and charm through 4 main suburbs: the Sydney CBD, Parramatta, Liverpool, and Penrith.

Sydney CBD

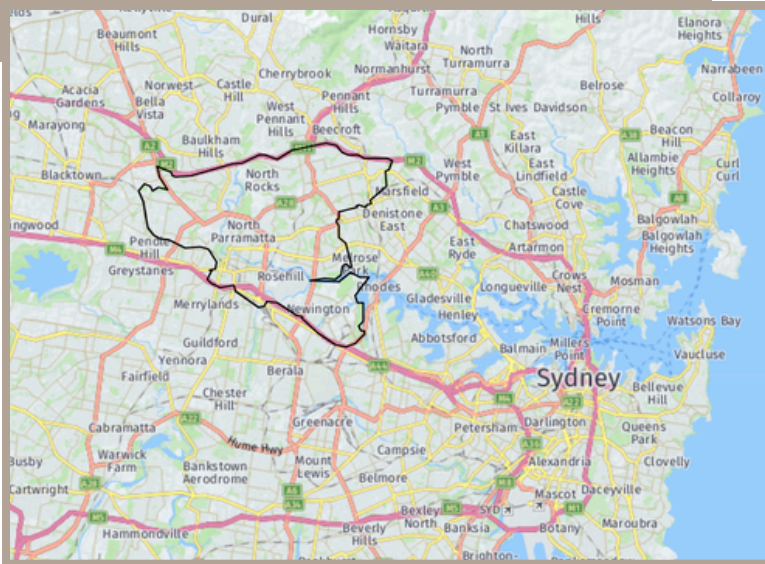

The heart of the city

- It's not just the commercial heart of the city but also a melting pot of cultures with the iconic landmarks: the Sydney Opera House and Harbour Bridge.
- The most populous of the state with various ethnic groups therefore offer plenty of opportunities and especially diverse in cuisine, entertainments.
- The CBD is well-connected with trains, buses, and ferries, making it easy to commute.
- However, the high cost of living and limited housing options, due to the dense population, can be challenging.

Parramatta

Sydney's second CBD

Parramatta map

Jacaranda season in Parramatta

- Parramatta is located approximately 24 kilometres (15 mi) west of the Sydney CBD, on the banks of the Parramatta River
- The largest ethnic groups: Chinese (22.3%), English (14.4%), Australian (13.9%), Indian (11.2%), Korean (5.9%).
- Parramatta is a major transportation hub with various options: trains, buses, and ferries, light rail.
- Parramatta provides the convenience of excellent services, abundant opportunities, and vibrant entertainment options, but it also comes with a high cost of living comparable to Sydney CBD.

Liverpool

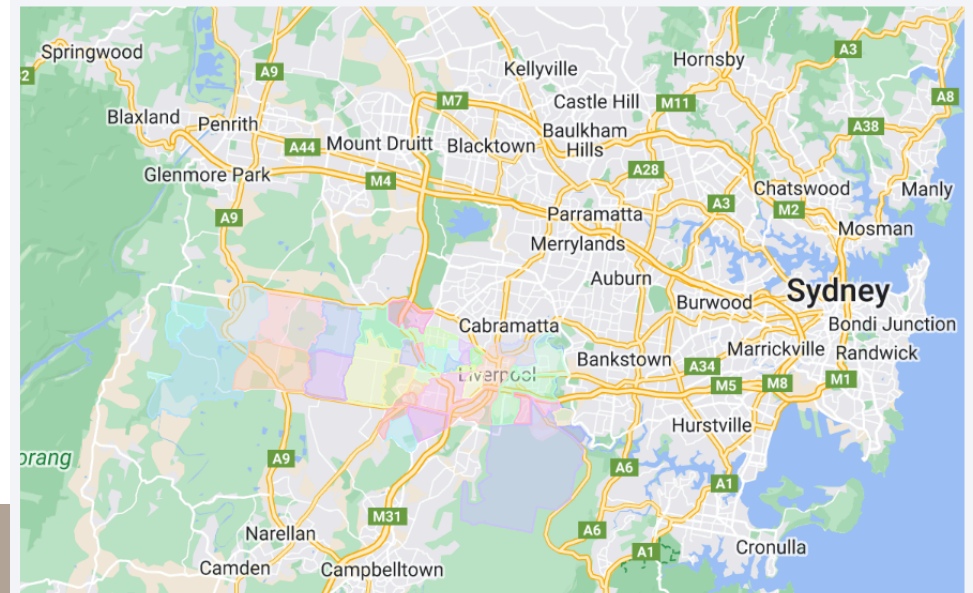

A Thriving Community

www.iconsmat.com.au

- Liverpool, NSW, has good transportation options with buses, trains connect to Sydney, major roads like the M5 and M7 offer easy car access.
- It's a peaceful urban for studying with access to Sydney's most interesting Library, Liverpool library.

- Liverpool is a suburb of South Western Sydney, 31 kilometres (19 mi) south-west of the Sydney CBD.
- Home of the ICONSMAT organization, a symbol of innovation and excellence in the community.
- The main shopping area is centred on Macquarie Street, with Westfield Liverpool, a major shopping centre at the northern end.

Penrith

Gateway to the Blue Mountains

- Penrith is located within Sydney region, about 50 kilometres (31 mi) west of Sydney CBD.
 - It is well-served by the Penrith Railway Station, which offers regular train services to Sydney's CBD (taking about 50-60 mins), bus services and M4 Motorway that connect Penrith with surrounding areas.
-
- The Penrith Panthers entertainment precinct and numerous local events offer diverse options, from local cafes to major shopping centres.
 - Penrith serves as a gateway to the Blue Mountains, providing easy access via road and rail for those travelling to the region's iconic natural attractions.

Blue Mountain

✦ CONCLUSION

- Do your research, thoroughly!
- Prepare yourself a basic plan before departure such as accomendation, how to get there from the airport, contacts in the emergency cases, budget for first few weeks/months, etc.
- Lower your expectations, not to get disappointed. It helps you in long run!
- Most importantly: 'Be Kind, Be Happy 😊'

www.iconsmat.com.au

Credit:
Photography and edit done by Lua Huynh
IG account: @alie.lh

